

CLASSROOM UPDATE

I want to thank all parents who volunteered during September and October. Your help is much appreciated!

Mathathon

This year's Mathathon takes place on Tuesday, November 4th. Please see the green and yellow sheets that went home for important information regarding this event.

Home reading

Our home reading program is underway! Each week your child will bring home three new French books to read. Instructions are in the recording book in their book bag.
