

Students can write short stories at home and share them during Author's Corner (Fridays).

They can describe a trip, event or special interest or create a fictional story.

This is a fabulous opportunity to further practice and develop their writing skills.